RAMBLINGS FROM THE EDITOR

Fall is the time of year to start thinking about the 2015 leadership for your club. Nominations will be accepted for all four elected positions (President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer) at today's show (October 12th) and next month - November 9th. Ballots will be mailed with the December KEY-NOTES and membership renewal form. When you renew, by the January 11th show, you are entitled to vote.

Get your Christmas shopping done early - at the Pennsylvania Music Expo! Why not give the gift of music? 2015 KRC memberships make great stocking stuffers! See club Secretary Erna Reinhart at the show for more details or write her at: P.O. Box 10532, Lancaster, PA 17605.

Next month the American Historic Jukebox Association returns to our show with another batch of vintage jukeboxes for sale. So come on out and pick up one for your living room, den, office or music room! We have musical guests through the end of the year as well. Spread the word - invite others to attend.

Until next time, keep looking for those treasured tunes!

Our shows continue to bring the people in! We are enjoying record crowds as it can be seen by the number of people in the aisles at each Pennsylvania Music Expo. It's hard to believe we are quickly approaching our 36th year! Time flies when you're having fun!

Once again a tip of the toupee to Vice President Eddie Collins for his work in bringing in Ronnie Dove (November 9th) and Jimmy Clanton (December 14th) to our upcoming shows!

One of our 'behind the scene' guys who gets a mention this time around is Bob "Will" Williams. Will is the club member who sets up by the lobby door with all the albums (where does he get them all?) Will takes care of our tables, repairing them as needed along with making sure they are set up right for each show. Thanks to both people. Keep those records spinnin'. More to come!

FOUR EYES ARE BETTER THAN TWO!

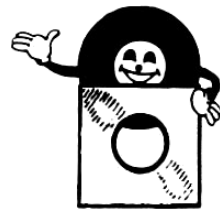

Since the earliest days of the KRC and our shows, Ron Diehl (right) has been there, as a supporter, club officer and most always with a camera in his hand documenting the important events and people as well as the everyday activities of the club and show.

The KRC recently welcomed Marlyn Kauffman as cophotographer for the club, to help insure we cover those special moments and month to month show activities, helping to document history as it is being created.

Thanks to both guys for doing a great job for the KRC and the Pennsylvania Music Expo!

The term SOS is often referred to as a signal of distress, however to thousands of beach music lovers, and dancers who flock every year to the South Carolina shore line, when you say SOS it signifies the 'Society Of Stranders,' a large group of individuals dedicated to sponsoring a number of yearly events, in preservation of beach music and shag dancing.

Historically, the term 'beach music' dates back to the late 1940's, when beach goers in the southeast, typically heard R & B sounds being performed by artists such as Louis Jordan, Wynonie Harris, and Joe Turner among others.

Today's beach music (sometimes called southern soul) is a potpourri of early rhythm and blues, mixed with the soul grooves of the 1960's - 80's, combined with music of the regional artists, resulting in a unique blend.

In attending the 'fall migration' week, my wife Debbie and I (with KRC's Derek Shaw and Kathy Overly) were among the 7,300 people in attendance on 'Fun Monday' to hear Little Isadore & The Inquisitors (below), The Embers (w/Craig Woolard) and Smokin' Hot (w/ Gary Lowder). This was an outdoor show on Main Street in N. Myrtle Beach.

2014 SOS Fall Migration in North Myrtle Beach

An inside look at the music, bands, and world all its own

By Eddie Collins

During our stay we were caught up with all the non-stop action at local clubs such as the Spanish Galleon, Duck's, Fat Harold's, Decker's, HOTO's and others, including a few outdoor venues. This is where the music and dancers came alive all day and night in support of the live bands and disc jockeys spinning their favorites.

Over the years, a number of beach music acts hailing from Virginia, thru the Carolinas, and northern Georgia became nationally known recording artists as well, including The Showmen, The Tams, Swingin' Medallions, The Candyman, Bill Deal & The Rhondels, Chairmen Of The Board, The Catalinas, and The Embers, some of which are still highly active and in demand.

Of note, a quite exciting act in the mix, which Debbie & I enjoyed, was Jim Quick & Coastline. Their repertoire, predominantly consisting of original tunes, was intertwined with influences of blues, country, southern rock, and catchy lyric hooks. Their fans (known as 'Coastline Crazies') were spotted singing along to every song. Jim Quick is featured on a duet with soul legend Grayson Hugh on a recent CD compilation disc entitled 'Dancin With My Baby.'

Quite admirable, is the distinctive sense of camaraderie among all the entertainers, as explained by Don Jordan of The High Rollers, 'It's a close knit community, artists will play another's songs, share members, pull together for a fundraiser,...the word 'family' describes it perfectly.'

A major proponent and supporter in promoting the SOS activities and beach music scene, is radio station '94.9 The Surf' WVCO FM. Regarding their incredible format, General Manager Ted Bell sums it up as "...a unique blend of Carolina beach music and classic hits."

In being the official station of SOS events, speaking on popularity of 'The Surf' in the Myrtle Beach radio market, Ted says "We won station of the year 11 years in a row, and were put into the Hall Of Fame in 2011. In my 52 years of broadcasting, this is the best gig I've had in radio!"

Taking their music and performers quite seriously, SOS people and music lovers, will be honoring their entertainers with the annual Carolina Beach Music Awards Weekend (CBMA) slated for November 5th - 9th, with many festivities and performances. For anyone seeking to take a vacation that will have many lasting memories, make plans to enjoy one of the yearly SOS events, as you certainly will not be disappointed!
